

You are pregnant. Now what?

Knowing your options can help you decide.

Parenting

Prenatal care is important for you and your developing baby.

Adoption

Open, closed, and in-family adoption are options if you decide to continue your pregnancy, but choose not to parent.

Ending the Pregnancy

Abortion is a legal and safe procedure performed by experienced health professionals.

FOCUS ON

FOCUS ON

FOCUS ON

Choosing a doctor you trust

Finding information on birth options that are available in your area
(midwifery, Ob-Gyn, birth center, hospital birth, others)

Choosing a doctor you trust

Eating healthy foods

Taking a prenatal vitamin

Connecting to pregnancy and parenting resources in your community

Talking to your doctor about family planning and birth control options after delivery

Researching adoption agencies and finding one you trust

Talking to your doctor about family planning and birth control options after delivery

Finding out how far along you are in your pregnancy

Choosing a health clinic that provides abortions and scheduling an appointment

Planning for travel and other associated costs

Talking to your doctor about family planning and birth control options after you're no longer pregnant

Talk to us about any of these options.
We'll support your choice with resources and information.